“ The Len Ridley family extends our sympathy and promises our prayers for the Padilla/Sanchez family at this time. As a boy, one of my favorite places to go was the Padilla's service station - I would often see Florian for a minute or two (he was always busy with his farming); I remember him as always friendly, always working. He and Elsie were such a strong visual example of a marriage that was a real partnership in every aspect - of their work and their family. We will praying for you all in the days ahead.

Mr. Padilla was an excellent good friend and co-worker. I know that he always carried with him the golden key that would one day open the door to eternity. He used that key now in death--death was only for a moment. Mr. Padilla is now in the land of the living; living forever.

“ Family,

The passing of Florian, the loving icon of your family, is heart-felt. He lived in the freedom of his love of family and friends. He was a truly good human being! He was blessed to have received the "Gift of Life" in his beloved Jarales. He lived to enjoy his passion with the love of his life, Elsie. It is hard to speak of one and not the other as they were inseparable. They were ever at home breathing life into the fragrance of alfalfa and peach blossoms. Now in keeping with their Catholic faith, Florian has rejoined Elsie in eternity where they enjoy the blessings of God. May both rest peacefully in that great eternal mystery of life!

May their soul's eternal light visit each night and bring solace to your hearts.

We regret not being with you but age and distance preclude it. You remain in our hearts and good thoughts.

I send sincere condolences on behalf of Sue, our family and myself.

Your cousin,
