“ We would like to express our sincere condolences to Richard and Frances' entire family. W recently learned of her passing away and were saddened to hear that such a lovely lady and friend had passed away. We've been living out of state but hope that our sympathy and prayers reach all of you and keep her lovely smile in your never ending memories. God bless all of you.

“ To The Frances Baca Baldonado Family: Please accept my condolences on the passing of Frances today. I was shocked to read her obituary in the Valencia County News Bulletin. I went to the Peralta Grade School with Frances and her cousins Charles and Clovis starting in 1st Grade and then onto Junior High and High School in Los Lunas. I remember Frances as very kind and caring person.

“ Frances, I am so sad by your passing there are no words. My comfort is in knowing you are with our Lord and are no longer in pain. I will treasure the memories of you and hold them dear to my heart, our outings, our conversations in person, by phone or your long texts which I always looked forward to. You were a special friend, cousin and person in my life and I thank God for you. Rest in Heavenly peace.
