

Frances A. Chavez

May 18, 1936 - August 26, 2019

1936-2019

Frances Armijo-Chavez, age 83, passed away peacefully at a nursing facility in Albuquerque, NM, surrounded by her grandchildren, Rilee and Travis, son Johnny and his wife, Jessica. Frances grew up in Horse Springs, NM, on a ranch her family owned. She was preceded in death by her husband, Juan A. Chavez, and together they owned and operated a farm and two cattle ranches. Frances is survived by her four children; Johnny, Judy, Darlene and Mike and their perspective families. Frances had a love for the western side of life and her family knows she is walking that big ranch up in the sky, along with Juan, and they are tending God's cattle.

All services will be held at San Antonio Catholic Church in Abeytas on Saturday, September 7, 2019, beginning with a Visitation at 8:30 AM, a Rosary to be recited at 9:30 AM, and a Funeral Mass at 10:00 AM. Interment will take place at San Antonio Catholic Cemetery following. Johnny and Jessica would like to extend their thanks and appreciation to Matthew Sanchez, niece, Debbie Aragon, all of Frances' nurses and CNA's at Ladera Nursing Home in Albuquerque, NM. “ We pray for every family member and friend who are mourning the loss of a beautiful, kind hearted, nuturing, and loving lady, Frances. May each of you find Jesus' Peace and comfort in knowing she shared herself unselfishly with you. She will pray uncessing for you. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
