“ My Dearest uncle Frank,

You will be missed. We all loved you very much. You taught me many things growing up. As I look back the biggest was humility. You were a humble man that treasured your relationships and your family. Your humble and yet generous ways have always been an example to me that I try to follow, not always with success but with effort. There are many words you spoke that will always be with me and that I hope I can honor by passing them on to those I meet. I am so glad that I had the honor of spending the time I did with you. My prayers and thoughts go out to the family and all that knew you as they have heavy hearts today.

Your loving nephew, Albert

“ Evangeline, Yvonne and Family,

It is with great sadness that I endure with you the loss of your father and brother. He was an honorable man whose heart poured love to all of us while his spirit looked at us through his eyes. He was a fair and just man who arose above conflict. He always reminded me there was a way to peacefully resolve issues that would come before me. I will continue to honor his wise thinking without bringing fault to his belief. May the fire that kindled his life always be with you. I will forever honor those wonderful memories of Frank and carry them in joy as he would have wished it to be. Our man of peace has now joined his beloved Lila.

I regret I cannot be with you at this time. Please accept our sincere condolences on behalf Sue, our family and myself. May time bring solace to you.

Your cousin,

Oscar S. Ramirez..

“ I will love you forever, and I will miss you always. No matter how much I prepared myself in my head, I don't think I was ready for you to leave me.

One of the last full conversations you and I had, you told me that I was going to be alright. I try and try to remember this and keep this in my head but it is hard. All I can really do is hold on to the wonderful memories that you have left with me and the love you and Nana always gave me.

I love you, and you are forever in my heart.

“ *Papa!!!! I am heart broken that you have left us.
When I think about all the years that we were able to spend with you all I can do is smile and remember the love. You and Nana were my safe haven growing up. Your door was always open and your home always full of love and this was known by all. Anyone could always stop by and you would always welcome them into your home and your hearts.
Thank you for all the lessons you have taught me and all the love that you always showed me and everyone that you met.
You are forever in my heart.*
