“ Our deepest condolences to Ymelda and the entire family. We are devastated and in disbelief.

He is one of the hardest working men we had the pleasure to call our friend. I worked from home for FLT doing their bookkeeping. Frank was kind enough to deliver the paperwork to my home Monday-Wednesday-Friday. We got to know Frank and his wife Imelda, and learned through our conversation they knew my mother Lorraine Simmons. As we talked more as time went on, I learned that Gregorio Sanchez, was Imelda's dad, who was one of my dad's friends way back when. Fast forward two weeks before his passing when we talked last, I learned his sister Marilyn Lopez, and I graduated together. This is such a small world.

Our friendship grew from there. We just want to say that he will truly be missed such a wonderful person. He loved his family and enjoyed working with Frank III at FLT.

May God bless you. Rest In Peace Frank. Harry and I will miss you.
