“ Lamento mucho la pérdida de su ser amado. Estoy segura que está pasando por un tiempo muy difícil ya que la muerte de un ser querido deja un gran vacío en el corazón. Algo que me ayudó mucho a mi es el consuelo que da la palabra de Dios, La Biblia. Si tiene una Biblia, le invito a que busque los textos de Juan 5:28, 29, Revelación 21; 3,4 y Hechos 24: 15. Ahí vera que se nos da la bella esperanza de la resurrección. Esto nos deja saber que en un futuro, ¡vamos a poder ver a nuestros seres queridos nuevamente, incluyendo a su ser amado! ¿Se puede imaginar el gozo que tendremos?

Quisiera compartir más con usted esta magnífica esperanza. Con dicho pensamiento en mente, le invito a visitar el siguiente enlace: <http://www.JW.org/es/publicaciones/libros/tratado-muertos-volver-a-vivir/> Ahí encontrara un artículo que habla más al respecto.

“ Frankie will be missed by so many. I don't ever have the right words to say, but this poem brings comfort to me when I think of you. I hope it will bring comfort to others....

His Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.*

*Just think of him as resting
from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched...
for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much.*

(Poem by E. Brenneman)

You will forever remain in our hearts.

*With Love,
Julie*

Frankie you are your mom and dads gentle giant. Sometimes we don't understand why the things that happen to us in life do, but I remember you chasing Marie and I and sometimes we even had enough money to get a 10 cent double scoop ice cream and we all thought we were all so grown up! This is how I remember you with a huge grin and ice cream melting down your chin. Be at peace, Love you!
