“ I'll always remember Uncle Juni and his goofy ways. He was always trying to make us laugh and smile. Uncle, you made an impact on everyone you came across. We will miss you. God bless you.

“ We once came across this rock and my dad said he wanted to steal it, but I told him it's too big, he said "take a picture of me by my rock since you won't let me steal it" he also swore he would go back and take it. He was a geologist at heart.
