“ One memory that we'd always talk and laugh about (every time we'd see each other) was when we were kids, Robert and Gabriel were arguing. Rob was on the step and Gabriel was sitting on the ground (he was so pissed off). He picked up what he thought was a rock, he had his hand drawn back and was ready to throw it at Rob. The four of us, Robert, Carolyn, Angela and myself were laughing so hard, at the same time we were telling him look in his hand, that wasn't a rock. Well, when he finally looked at what he had in his hand (it was dog poop) he got so mad and threw it to the ground and started crying. We laughed so hard.....Gabe didn't think it was to funny at the time, he laughed about it later though. Another great memory that I love and will never forget.....When we were kids, we'd all sit in the back of the truck and as we were driving down the road, we'd start singing "Na na na na, Na na na na, Hey hey hey, Goodbye". We'd start off whispering as low as possible and each time, we'd get higher and higher until we were screaming at the top of our lungs. I will hold those, along with many other great memories of Gabe in my heart forever. Until we meet again Little Big Brother. I love and miss you so very much. Thank you for always being you.

“ Our little Bumpy. Grandpa named you well. I will never forget the smile you had from the day I held you and Baptized you. I will never forget you when you would holler my name from down the street as you got home from school. I will miss You calling me Nino! My favorite time was when you turned the bread into tortillas on our fishing trip, and how much fun we had. I have always had you in my heart Hito, and I always will. God Bless You!
