“ I met George in the early 70's I was 9 maybe 10 at junior rodeo he helped set me down in the steer riding every time I got ready to ride and he was there to encourage And help any way he could that's the kind of guy was anyone needed help he was right there to give a hand !!! He had a love for his friends and for riding bulls he could sick it on some rank ones !!! And he liked to have fun !!! There were a lot of parties I can't even tell how many !!! I'm talking good ones at the 520 club !!! All night all weekend some kinda fun we would have Girls, Gambling it was the place to be specially during the state Fair after the rodeo we'd close down the bar cowboys,gram were ever the action was then it was on to the 520 club, that was George Fitz's house!!! Some of the best time's had buy all !!! R I P George hat's off to you!!! My Friend !!!
