“ Oh how I miss my friend.... Even tho we never met in person, we spent many hours together, talking, laughing, watching movies, and just enjoying life....You touched so many people and lives, and your absence is felt deeply! Til we meet on that golden shore, keep watching over us! 11:11 Jen

“ My condolences to the Tabet family. My sister and I were sad to hear of Gerald's passing. We attended UNM with him and I worked with Fidel at Walgreens. Gerald, Jimmy Trujillo and Marty Ryan were quite the trio back then. There was never a dull moment and plenty of laughing. Gerald had such a charming smile and caring disposition. He will be missed.

Father God, thank You for sharing Your precious Gerald with us for 59 short years. Please comfort his family and friends during this time of grief. Give them peace and a knowing that through a relationship with You they will see Gerald once again in Your Holy Kingdom. We love You and praise You Father. Amen.

“ I wish to send my condolences to Gerald's family, may he rest in peace. Gerald and I were born two months apart. In second grade he gave me a fun game for my birthday called "Even Steven" as that was his middle name -- and my first name -- Those were good times!

“ My heart is broken for Brother Fidel and the family as they grieve this horrible loss. Gerald started school with me at ST. Mary's and he was always the boy that all us girls liked!!! He was so smart and talented. He was always so happy to see me and I know that he is dancing the streets of gold with Jesus. You will be missed Gerald.
