“ Robert & Pam - you were raised by an amazing woman! I have many memories of times spent in your home - and I recall a very strong woman that provided for her family. Your mom was an encourager - she was quiet, but she still communicated her concern for us. In my minds' eye, I can still walk through the rooms of your house, can remember specific songs playing on your stereo. The first time I ever had Kentucky Fried Chicken was at your house, compliments of Mrs. Locey! I always enjoyed bumping into your mom around town - and I always felt that she enjoyed seeing me.

*Pam, I loved the visits from your mom and mine when I lived out of state. We had a great time traveling. Thank you Gertrude for all the travel with did with Mom, I always enjoyed it when the two of you visited where ever I was living. We saw lots of great sights and experienced much of the east cost and Midwest. So many great memories and all the toll booths we went thru. Mom in the back seat, you in the front with maps and coins for the toll booths and me driving. We were quite a trio, even when we were lost. You will be missed!
Love, Deborah*
