“ Gilbert Tabet Family,

I was saddened to hear of the passing on my childhood friend. True to life Gilbert was never a slave to thought and always remained free to live in the light of his own soul. He nursed no delusions and allowed no fear. So when the hour came, that numbing cloud upon the soul, he felt free to breathe and glow. That was my friend.

Please my accept my expression of condolences, that of my wife and family. May time bring comfort from your loss.

“ The Belen Senior Center was a place that Gilbert enjoyed attending on dance day. Los Alegres de Belen enjoyed playing his favorite songs and he would sit near the band. We already miss Gilbert and his wonderful stories. One day he walked into my office and was very concerned about Trinnie "Pito Pito" Baca. He told me I had to go see him in the rest home because he was not doing good. Gilbert had a compassionate side to him!
