“ Lynn Darr writes: "I have fond, fond memories of Glen from my high school days. A group of us used to spend time at his house because we were friends with his daughter Glenna. Glen was always so warm and welcoming. He loved to get his fiddle out and play for us and we loved to hear him play. Although I was not fortunate to have him as my 4H leader, others who were in his program often spoke about what an inspiration he was. He was a kind, kind man. May he rest in peace. He will be sorely missed.
