“ Emotional week....Auntie Gloria Ortega, passed away Monday morning. I so wanted to go the the funeral, but due to my baby girl being ill and hospitalized and my boy under the weather we will not be able to make the trip. We are at home resting. I wrote this tribute to my Auntie "Goya." You dried my tears when I was little. You took weeks and worked with me on my multiplication tables always making me do jumping jacks if I missed because you knew I could get it. You always made me lunch in elementary school. Always trying to self-educate yourself as an EMT you always practiced on Lynn and I. Playing fire truck was always our favorite thing. You took us everywhere when we were little! You always cared for us like your own children. Her heart always courageous, arms always open, hands always working and her faith never fails. I love you and your spirit will always live with me. I know you are dancing today in Heaven. Rest In Peace.

She would help anybody when called, and give her heart and soul. She loved what she did not matter what challenge came her way. She was so positive and brighten your day my sister how earned her wings to assist the Lord In heaven. We love you so much my sister rest in peace.
