“ My Aunt Greg was dealt an illness early in her life which took over her life’s potential. She did her best to handle this affliction, and she graced us with her presence at many, many family functions throughout the years. She did also, however, bless this world with 4 wonderful children with whom I have had the pleasure and privilege to have in my life.

To my cousins Barbara, Andy, Cathy, and Tara - Illness, injury, love, lost moments of true greatness and sheer stupidity all occur to test the limits of your soul. Sometimes things happen to you which seem painful and unfair, but I hope you realize that without overcoming these obstacles, you would have never realized your potential strength, willpower, or heart. You are all exceptional women.
