“ *Helen and I were first-born in our families - she was a first cousin - thus, we had a special relationship growing up. Sophie & I are very saddened by Helen's passing, but we are encouraged by the love shown Helen for the life that she lived. Our condolences to the Baca family and the Padilla family. Rest in peace, Helen. Many thanks for the all that you did for your family and community. Sophie & Gil “ Albino, Noellah & family,

We are so sorry for your loss. I knew Helen my whole life. I remember getting to visit her along with my Aunty when they worked at the courthouse. When Noellah was in my class again I got to see Helen more often as she dropped Noellah off at school daily, sometimes even picking her up.

God sure did bless this world with a wonderful woman on February 12, 1941. Her strength, entertainment and all around wonderfulness will be carried on through her children and grandchildren.

Eternal rest grant unto Helen Padilla Baca oh Lord and may perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. Amen
