“ My nana..one of the best ppl on the planet 🌍. Even when life didn't go the way she wanted it to she always made the best out of it. She always tried even when she was to tired. N no matter what she would never give up on any of us.. we've talked about many things.. and instead of falling because of this I'm gonna use it as a smack in the face to pick myself up n get on sum sort of track. Because nana always told me whatever you put ur mind to you can do

“ Words can't even begin to describe the shock and sadness I am feeling. In the few years I've been in this family and got to know you, I was able to see what an incredible person you were. Family always came first before yourself. I got to hear dozens of stories of how you were the "family bodyguard". I am so fortunate to have been able to have you in my life. You never had an ounce of judgement towards me as long as I took care of your sister. I will definitely miss our little talks or our time together with your sister shopping then going back to our place and just hanging out and talking. I'm going to miss picking on you about how bad your beloved Chicago Bears are playing and all the trash talking you give out on those occasions when the Bears would play my Chargers. You are free from all your pain and worries. Fly high in the heavens and be with your parents and kids. I will miss you very much, but I know one day we will meet again.

“ My beautiful sister Irene ❤️ you were always so strong fighting and telling me I am not going no where. I am going to miss our fridays together and all the phone calls. And mostly our talks. And just your laugh. I love you. And miss you. 😭 but if anyone deserves her wings it's def you! You would talk to me about what you want and liked and didn't want and then we would just laugh. I am going to miss you 😞 please guide and protect us and your beautiful kids and grandkids. 💔💔

“ We could all use a reminder every once in a while of how important friendship is. Irene and I became friends and co workers many years ago. We watched our children grow and live their lives. Sometimes you meet a person and you just click—you’re comfortable with them, like you’ve known them your whole life, and you don’t have to pretend to be anyone or anything. You will be missed Irene. My prayers to your family 🕯️ 🙏❤️
