“ Irene was an amazing pediatric nurse, I worked with her at UNMH. I am sad she has passed but know she has been in pain for years and is finally at peace. The nursing community has lost another great nurse and an advocate for New Mexico's children. I cannot attend her services but I do hope you get the New Mexico Nursing Honor guard to attend.

“ We were deeply saddened to hear about Irene’s passing. Her legacy of kindness and love will continue to inspire everyone that knew her. May you find strength in her memory.

Donnita & John Thompson - November 07, 2025 at 12:19 AM

“ My heart and prayers are with Irene’s beloved family during this time of sorrow. May you feel surrounded by love and lifted by grace. Irene absolutely adored her girls and often spoke of how truly blessed she was to have them and her precious grandbabies. Her love for her family was unwavering and radiant—a reflection of the deep joy she carried in her heart.

I had the privilege of meeting Irene at my workplace. She noticed my ACTS bracelet, and in that moment, a beautiful bond was formed. She was my sister in Christ, and I am so grateful God allowed our paths to cross. Her faith was inspiring, her spirit uplifting, and her kindness unforgettable.

Though hearts ache, I am praying we all find peace in knowing that Irene is now rejoicing in the presence of our Heavenly Father. I can only imagine her dancing in glory, embraced by eternal love.

“Well done, good and faithful servant... Enter into the joy of your Lord.” — Matthew 25:23

May God’s comfort and strength be with you now and in the days to come.

With love and prayers,
Shantel Anaya-Tafoya
