“ Dear Sedillos Family: I am so sorry to hear about your devastating loss. Even though I didn't personally know Isaiah, I knew him through his family, through his Grandparents Jesus and Joyce, having worked with them for many years, you get to know the kind of family they have created, through their love and Joy! I pray that each of you can find peace, through the many memories and Isaiah's love for each of you. Regina, my heart goes out to you, and to Leticia and Jesus Jr. Jesus and Joyce, my love to all of you, Many Blessings!

“ To Regina, Jesus, Joyce, and all the family, We are truly sorry for your loss. Though we did not know Isaiah, we have a very clear vision of what he was surely like. We can be confident in the fact that Isaiah was a kind, friendly, and thoughtful young man, and that is because we have always loved and respected this family. Jesus and Joyce, we pray that the good Lord will grant you peace, that he give you courage to withstand the heartbreak you feel, and the spiritual strength that we all need when our world is turned upside down. Regina, treasure the memories....
You get to keep each loving memory. These times together and the love and goodness of the Lord will see you through - We will pray.
God Bless All of You,

He said the cross I wore gave him faith in me as a person, that he trusted it. I have been humbled today remembering when he talked to me and said he was happy you guys had found him, helped him to change for the better, cared about him. He made me see life in a different way, to have appreciation and do the right thing. I will never forget him.

“ My dear Isaiah, you were such a close and good friend to Ray. Thank you for being there for him when he needed that friend. You mean so much to Ray and all our family. The last time that I saw you it was for Ray's graduation you seemed so happy with that beautiful smile that you always had. Ray was so happy to have you over that night spending time with him and us. The next day I took you home, you gave me the biggest hug ever and told me bye, that was the last hug from you. Thank you for being such a kind hearted and respectful person to my Ray and my family. You will always be in our ❤️.
