He was an incredible son, brother and friend to all. James had an incredible sense of humor and loved to make people laugh. His smile literally lit up everyone's life, and his laugh was so infectious. James had so many people who loved him and he will be dearly missed. He left the world far too soon. When we were younger, his sister Tiffany and I were best friends and that's how James and I became friends. One day for some weird reason he decided he wanted to try and pierce my ear with a safety pin. Needless to say I passed out , and he thought it would be funny to fill a straw with water and put it down my nose. Not going to lie, I was upset at first but laughed the whole walk back to his mom's house. Fly high with the angels. This isn't goodbye, until we meet again. Love you

I love you James Cooke. I'm so grateful I got to spend the last 3 years of my life with you. You've given me one of the greatest gifts, our baby boy! Your laugh was contagious and your heart was made of gold! I've never felt so loved, you always made sure me and your kiddos were okay! You wouldn't let anyone go without! You are definitely the smartest man I ever met. You seemed to amaze me everyday! You were the most talented man! I loved bragging about all the different traits you had you loved mechanics, welding, home repair and definitely had some of the best paint jobs out there! You've filled my heart with so much love! You've given me the admiration to always do better. In my eyes you will always be my hero! I'm going to miss your voice and our hour long conversations. You use to tell me time would just fly by when we were together! I'm going to miss everything about you Cooke ❤️ It's the hardest thing to fall asleep with out my best friend I miss you laying on my chest and rubbing your head and massaging your hands cause you worked so hard! You were the coolest we all looked up to you! I remember you would always offer 20$ to who ever would massage you feet!

You were wonderful you just purchased us your first home! You worked your ass off to make sure we could get it. As I walk around it I have so many great memories and it hurts me to know you'll never walk through the doors again. But until we meet again Cooke May you rest in paradise with your father! I can't wait to look into your gorgeous hazel eyes and feel your warm touch. I'm heartbroken to know your baby boy will not get to be raised by you, however it brings me to peace that your siblings can teach him like you would. I love you babe in my heart you'll forever be! Xoxo
