“ I was just told of Jimmy's passing and am filled with sadness for someone I hadn't seen in 30 years. I started at RDW and Jimmy became my unofficial mentor. I will always be grateful to him for believing in me when so many others did not. He taught me a great deal and always treated me with kindness and respect. My condolences to Annette and the rest of his family.

“ I just found out about Jimmy's passing. I worked with Jimmy years ago when it was just RDW. He shared his knowledge of accounting with us newbies freely and he was always fun to be around. I have great memories of popcorn and April 15th parties and mini-golf tournaments. My condolences to Annette and your family.

“ Jimmy was one of the good guys. Outside of REDW, we'd see each other every now and then at the Sandia Amphitheater whenever a blues band was playing. He actually turned me on to the Tedeschi Trucks Band, and for that I am forever thankful. Rest in peace, Jimmy.

“ Jimmy and I met at the gym and lifted weights together. We were naturally drawn to each other and when I realized he was into accounting and he found out I was into banking; we started to strategize on how we could help each other. But a lot of our workout was just talk and then we lifted some weights. And then the bbq hobby and I hung around at the Pork and Brew and wished I could go to some of the festivals he and Guy would go. Jimmy was such a pleasant and positive person; and then I got to know his father Nino and his brothers, uncles and aunts. Such a great family. It has been my privilege to have Jimmy as a friend.

Jimmy was a wonderful man and I was honored to work with him. He was smart and had that great sense of humor, sometimes I wouldn't know if he was being funny or making a point. Was playing some Joe Bonnamasa in his memory this week. His presence will be sorely missed at REDW and everywhere. Deepest condolences to Annette, Max, Mario and all of us who loved him. Fly with the angels Jimmy.

“ I met JT through SteelCityBuzz and the BuzzFest event in Pittsburgh several years ago. JT helped me attend that event and I will forever be grateful to his generosity. Enjoyed many hours of chatting Pittsburgh sports with JT over the years and will be missed greatly by this community. JT's family, you're in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. We all loved JT very much in Pittsburgh sports community. Rest easy JT, thanks for all the laughs and conversations.

“ Annette and family,

JT was one special man. We were so happy to meet him for the first time in Nashville when he introduced us to the Governor of NN, Susana Martinez. We met again in AZ before a Penguins-Coyotes game. He always had a great smile, and a hilarious sense of humor for a CPA 😊 Those of us that knew him from SCB will truly miss him. RIP, my friend!

Jimmy, you'll be missed. I will always remember the ribbing we gave each other about our favorite football teams. Your quick wit made it fun for all. Nothing but respect for you, my friend. May God bless your family. Rest in peace and enjoy the Steeler games from the ultimate sky box.
