

James White

December 30, 1974 - February 11, 2016

1974-2016

James Austin White Sr., 41, of Jarales, passed away on Thursday, Feb. 11, 2016.

James was a loving father,
b o y f r i e n d ,
son, brother,
nephew and great friend to everyone.

James was well known in Valencia County for his hard work and his love for his animals. James dedicated a 15-year career at the Valencia County Animal Control to give animals a second chance at life.
James loved his longtime girlfriend, Janette Turner. He loved his kids and sacrificed

everything he had to give to his boys.

James loved sports. He especially loved the New York Jets ever since he was a child. He loved taking his boys fishing and to yard sales. James also loved having barbecues.

He was very close to his parents, who he always went to see every night.

James always wanted peace and never liked confrontation. He always wanted people to get along. James was unique, always loved the simple life. He taught his kids to be happy with what they have. He always had a saying, "Money may buy happiness but it can't buy love."

We are sure going to miss him but he is now taking care of big sister, "Nina," in heaven.

James is preceded in death by his sister, Janeen White; paternal grandparents, James E. White and Rebecca White; maternal grandparents, Erlindo Trujillo and Maryann Trujillo; aunt, Ann Sanchez; and Antonio Trujillo.

He is survived by his parents,
Rick and Martha White;
children, James White Jr.
Dakota White, Tyler Turner and Christopher White, who he took under his wing and raised as his own; longtime girlfriend and fiancée, Janette Turner;
sister, Kimberly and husband,
John Jaramillo; brother, Robert White; uncle, Lorenzo Trujillo;
half brother, Rick White Jr.;
half sister, Kari Ann White;
and his favorite niece and nephews, Angelica A. Jaramillo
and husband, Jay, best friend
Justin Jaramillo, and Vincent
Jaramillo; and his little buddy, Christian “Buggy”; and many more aunts, uncles, cousins and friends, too many to mention but he loved them all.

A viewing will be held at 9 a.m., Thursday, Feb. 18, at Romero Funeral Home, followed by a funeral at 10 a.m.

Burial will be held at Terrace
Grove Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Robert White, John Jaramillo, Jay

Alvarez, Daniel Trujillo, James White Jr. and Derrick Saiz. The honorary pallbearer will be Dakota White.

A reception will follow after the funeral at the First Baptist Church in Los Chavez.

“ Well big brother . it's time for you to go rest and be with Janeen. It's so hard to let you go .you knew so many people and kept in touch with everyone .I talked to you every night usually thru a text . Jan 11 I had my surgery and you called in at the hospital you told me u were so worried and if you could change places with me you would . And you would pray for me . You passed away exactly one month to the day I had my surgery .I will never know what you prayed for that day but I know you loved me so much I can only imagine . I will see you soon in heaven . but until then hang tight to Janeen she will guide you and here on earth I will be doing the same to the boys mom and dad Robert janeatte Tasha and everyone you cared for throughout your life . I know you always wanted peace I can try my hardest to give you what you deserved here on earth good night James I love you be free but behave . sweet dreams like we used to say at night

“ Well today we lay to rest a good husband and father to rest. James always made sure we had everything we needed and never went without. Am gonna miss our trips out to eat going for a drive or just staying home watching football all day. He loved chris and rasied Chris since he was baby and Chris looked up to him as a dad. Every night they would always play football either inside or outside and james never liked to lose that was his biggest thing. And with Tyler that was daddy lil man James and him had a special bond he loved Tyler alot and they would spend hrs watching Tom n Jerry or just getting up early and hanging out before daddy left for work. He showed the boys hard work n true love. I am gonna miss him and his last minute come backs and most of am gonna miss that smile. We love u are gone but never forgotten n we will be up there to see u someday

“ James and I would have known each other 17 years this March. I met James on my 17th birthday, he was fun kind and sarcastic. We spent the day at Deweys house listening to Rob Zombie really loud. At the end of the day we went our separate ways. Almost 2 years later Charlie invited me to stay with him and James for a bit in Belen. We soon married and had 2 beautiful boys over our 6 year relationship. As we grew older our personalities began to clash badly, and we divorced. Neither one of knew what we were doing for years as we struggled to adapt separately. It took a while but we became better parents by working together. He called the boys every night and had them call me on nights they were with him. He took my advice and started taking the boys out of Belen to yard sales and vacations, he even learned his way around parts of Albuquerque. That doesn't seem like much but we all know how James wasn't comfortable leaving town if he was driving. He took them on vacations out of state to see places like Pikes Peak, Trinidad, and Denver, and had planned a short Disney cruise for next year. He grew as a father and did his best, always working hard and always making time to play outside with his kids. He is ? missed, and we appreciate his being a part of our lives.

Just heard that your gone and here i sit crying like a child. You truly were a person ill never forget. Manbwe spent lots of weekends together on our offsite adventures. You saved my behind more then once. Thank you for showing me that one person can make a difference even if it seems small. Ill miss you my friend you taught me more then youll ever know. Rest now your day is done and youve worked long and hard. Go easy into the arms of the angels. Heaven is a better place with you in it. Ill love you always and ill never forget how wonderful of a friend to me you were.
