“ I had a gut feeling that my best close friend Jasmine Renee Flores life will be short lived by one of her boyfriends in the past when she was in her hometown in New Mexico!! Her second cousin just confirmed my fear in her life this day. She was killed a bullet to her head!! The gun was found in her hand facing up towards the forehead!! This story has to end in America today! I miss her so much.

It doesn't matter how long ago this was, this is disrespectful to MY family and way to personal.

“ Condolences to the family. I met Jasmine while working at the mall. Such a positive person, her laugh made everyone smile. it's only good bye until we meet again,

“ I can't believe Jasmine is really gone and laid to rest. My husband and I became friends with her while we worked at a mall here in San Jose, CA. I was working in an information booth while my husband (then fiancé) worked along side her as a security officer. She was beautiful and had such a big smile a good heart. Always positive and very goal oriented. She'd talk about her family here in SJ and NM and how much she cared about them. I recall a time when she told me her Dad was going to visit sometime in October 2012 and she was so excited! She was so full of life and this light just shined upon her full of positive vibes it was contagious! Just talking to her seeing her smile made your day a little brighter. I remember I tried to plan an outing with her but after spending a little bit of time with her she was called by her aunt telling her "you have to take your driver license test right now!". Sadly she left and texted me later saying she passed her driving test! Soon after she asked to use me as a reference so that she could get a job at a Dental office. Which she did get. Her goals were being meet and I was so happy for her. I never thought she wanted to leave California.

I only found out from a facebook post last month about her move back to NM and her searching for a job out there. I did ask what happened to her life here in Cali and her Job but she didn't answer me.

Now I can't help but wonder if she would have been alive today if she stayed here in California.

Our deepest condolences go out to her friends and family here in San Jose, CA. & Albuquerque, NM. We are so sorry we weren't able to make it her funeral from here in CA.

I do hope that justice prevails in light of Jasmine's death. I hope this brings awareness for people to ACT and speak out!

I leave you with... Psalm 23

The lord is my Shepard; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and they staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anoints my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

May Eternal rest grant unto Jasmine,

O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her.

We will always miss you pray for you my dear!

Love always,

“ Jasmine, it's hard to believe that you've passed on. I remember counseling you through rough spots and you helping me in similar ways, way back when we worked together at the mall. I know you were a golden person at heart and deserved only the best. Where ever you are going - where ever you travel to in the vast unknown, they will be blessed to have you when you arrive. I wish I could go to your service but I'm stuck behind the California border for work.. I'll never forget your unwavering sunny disposition to life that picked me up on my worst days. Love and miss you. My condolences to all family of Jasmine, she was a wonderful young woman who was a light in the lives of everyone she met.

“ My name is Julianna Montoya and I am Jasmine’s second cousin on her father’s side. The first memory that I have of Miss Jasmine Flores: Jasmine was the very first grandchild on her father’s side. When she was born I remember her fair skin, her piercing green eyes, and her immediate ability to attract every eye in the room. Jasmine was the most beautiful baby that I had ever seen and at nine years old I had the opportunity to change my first diaper. We were at Auntie Anita’s house and I (along with some help from my sisters) changed Jasmine on Aunt Anita’s bed, even though I was nine I felt like an adult attempting to really care for my new baby cousin Jasmine. I immediately fell in love with her and knew that she was going to become a very beautiful young lady. And then it seemed that over night she did grow into a beautiful, brave, smart, and talented, young lady that we all knew, loved, and admired. I cannot help but turn back the hands of time and remember her as the small, delicate, fair, beautiful baby that she was on Auntie Anita’s bed.
