“ As a good friend, "less distance be no barrier," of Jeff's brother Jim, I have heard many many, many incredible brother adventures! Some so funny and some so amazingly giving ! I never met Jeff but through Jim's heartfelt stories I knew Jeff !! I am saddened by the loss of such an amazing human being. All who knew him should step back a moment and truly experience the gift that he has brought to all !!! In my own way I grieve the loss of someone I never had the pleasure to meet ! I know one day we will all converge in the halls of an outer world in a dimension of immense light! May we all have even a small amount of the passion to care and give as Jeff Kubisak!! In Peace to All who revisit this wall !!! Jim, I Love you !

“ Jeff was a good friend for many years. He had a great sense of humor and I'll always remember the caricatures he drew. He, along with his brother Jim, welcomed my son and I for Thanksgiving dinner when we were on our way to an elk hunt in Arizona a few years ago. My condolences go out to his wife, daughter, and all his other relatives and friends.
Rest peacefully, Jeff.

Thirty-eight years of memories with Jeff literally flashed by in a single moment. From the time we first met at Getty Oil in Midland, TX through the distance relations we had following our departures from Texas we really had the best of times. The fun and laughter we created at Getty with our co-workers (and they all know who they are), the shenanigans we got away with at Texaco, the personal lives we led with all of our closest friends to this day and beyond, will always have a warm place in my heart and will always bring a smile to my face. And how could this not be, I have a huge folder filled with scripted memories I call my "fun file" and written by none other than the master satirist, Jeff. Don't get me wrong, we also had a very close, brotherly relationship, particularly when we were going through some tough times, personally. I will always remember, and be forever grateful for his his support and advice.

My sincere condolences to Becky, Karissa and to Jeff's family. Rest in peace, My Friend, until we meet again on the other side and see what kind of mischief we can generate there!!!

“ Dear Kubisak family,

Jeff has been a client of mine for eight maybe going on nine years. I'm in complete shock of his sudden passing. I will miss seeing him walk up our driveway and crack jokes on my husband and I about our never ending projects.

Jeff, thank you for being a great client. I will miss our conversations about life, family, and your days growing up in Illinois.

My sincere condolences to you all. Praying for peace and strength.

“ Jeff was the first friend I had when my family moved to Illinois. We quickly became great friends and he turned out to be a brother more than a friend. My heart broke when he moved to New Mexico his senior year of high school. We didn't keep in touch much. I have thought about him through the yrs. my condolences to his wife and daughter. And also so the rest of his family. Kenny, Jim, Kevin, and Debbie I am so sorry for your loss. Jeff was a great caring, funny, and all around great friend. My deepest sympathies to all.
