He was born in 1980, in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Jeremiah was a beloved son, brother, uncle, and friend. Jet was a selfless and empathic man with a very kind heart. His charismatic nature and infectious smile always made those around him feel good. He was a loving and loyal individual who cherished his family, his passion for boxing, and his dogs. Jet's dimples were a constant source of joy and brought smiles to many faces. He will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. Jet was preceded in death by paternal grandparents and founders of Pete's Café in Belen, NM, Pete and Eligia Gurule Torres, maternal grandparents, Gilberto and Cipriana Baca Sanchez. He was also preceded in death by family members on the Torres and Sanchez family sides. Jeremiah is survived by his fur babies, Missy and Blitzin. He leaves behind his siblings, Emerson Torres, Marie Torres, Dr. Billie Adams (Matthew Adams), Keith Torres, Andrea Sutton (Carlos Sutton), and Brittany Lucero. His nieces, Anyssa and Peytyn, his nephews Caleb, Luke, Alex, Lawson, Adam, Elliott, Hudson, and Asher. Jet's career was grounded in his love for boxing. From a young age, he discovered a joy in kickboxing which eventually blossomed into a lifelong passion for boxing. At the age of 18, he turned professional and dedicated himself to the sport. In 2014, he completed his professional boxing career after participating in 34 professional fights. Later in life, Jeremiah became a full-time caregiver to his father, Michael, a role he fulfilled with honor and grace. He spent many years working at Pete's Cafe, the family restaurant, where he formed lasting connections with the community he loved. He will always be remembered for his positive energy, selflessness, empathy, and kind-hearted nature. His presence will be deeply missed by his family, friends and all who were fortunate enough to have known him. To God be the glory. Pallbearers will be Matthew Adams, Carlos Sutton, Mario Maez, Caleb Torres, Luke Garcia, Joshua Duran, Shawn Montano and Jeremy Peralta. “ We will miss you so very very much Jer. I have so many beautiful memories of you. I remember once we went for a run together out in the llano. You were at the height of your boxing fitness and I was apologizing for running so slow and you told me, “that’s ok Auntie Karen. All that matters is you’re doing it. We’re out here and the sun is shining and the world is beautiful and we’re doing it!” And then he’d run as fast as he could up the next hill and then run right back to keep on coaching me.
