“ Judy and family words ring hollow at times like these but heartfelt sympathies are real. We became friends as I was a customer of yours. Many nights I would purposely come late to get my lottery tickets so we could engage in politics and news. I knew Jim would be there. We even talked of getting my grandson into New Mexico Tech, Jim admired me for being retired from the US Air Force. What an incredible man he was and him going 'Home' will leave an unfilled hole in my heart.
Praying for you Judy and children that God will embrace you in His infinite love and care at this time.

Judy I was so saddened when I found out of Jims passing. I worked for you for about 3 years and you guys were awesome bosses. I would run into Jim at the store from time to time and he always greeted me warmly. He will be missed. Mary Jane Bentacu
