Ann loved her Savior and Lord Jesus Christ. Ann and Lonnie Terry Jr. (who preceded her in death), lived the US Air Force Life while traveling overseas and to most of our 50 states. They are survived by their two children: a daughter, Kathy (Layton) with husband Adolph Sanchez of Belen, and their son Jimmy Ray Terry, who resides in Atoka, OK. “Mamaw” loved visits from the sixteen Sanchez and Layton great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild -all living locally. Also, the three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren of the Terry’s started life with “Granny Ann” in their household.

Ann and G. Wayne Louderback, (who preceded her in death) lived in Clovis, NM where they owned and operated a truck company that transported swinging beef to retailers. They lovingly shared his four children which included three daughters, Donna (who preceded in death) and is survived by husband, John Hudson of Farmington, Maggie Motley of Moore, OK, Lynette Gandy of Texas, and one son Robert Louderback of Moore, OK. Their families gave “Mamaw” five precious grandchildren and one great-grandchild. During her early years, Ann was an avid bowler, and in her free time, she loved crocheting, attended and became certified in Bible study teaching, obtained certification and Real-Estate License, and retired from John Maguire Realtors in Belen. She worked as a tag office MVD receptionist in Bokchito, OK. Ann later was cherished as a caregiver for the elderly in several of the homes in her neighborhood and surrounding towns. She cherished those extended family members as well.

“Jimmie” or “Ann” as she was known throughout her life, had two brothers; Johnny and Harold Maxwell, and four sisters; Doris Harris, Dorothy Rice, Reba (Phillips) Jones (who all preceeded her in death), and Martha with Husband Fred Eades, who resides in Moore, OK. She cherished several generations of nieces and nephews throughout Oklahoma and Texas in the Maxwell families. She has a special cousin close in childhood, Gene Pendergrass, who resides in Las Vegas, NV Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers, if so, we saw them there.

Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words as any friend could say;

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console the heart, we thank you so much, whatever the part.
