“ She and Louie are one of the best examples I know of Christ like love for each other, their family and their friends and neighbors. I spent many days on their dairy learning by her and Louie examples of hard work and patience with our youthful indiscretions.

“ So many fond memories. I loved her sense of humor and the little wry smile/smirk that went with it. Correction: I still love it! Miss and love you all.

“ So sorry to hear about your loss. Your mother was an amazing woman who was always behind the scenes quietly taking care of those she loved so much. She raised three great children and am sure that she loved and enjoyed her grandchildren, serving them as she served the rest of her family. I remember the one time I had the privilege of sitting down at a Vergeer dinner table. The food was amazing and she made sure that there was always plenty. She kept the fridge stocked and I know that my brothers enjoyed snacks, meals, and fun times at the Vergeer home. May God bless you and give you peace and strength as you mourn the loss of a mother, wife, and grandmother.

“ So many memories to share. I will always cherish our younger days on the dairy. Playing all day and then eating chocolate sprinkle sandwiches. The Dutch eat the best food! Being able to visit Holland with you was one of my most favorite trips. Many chocolate sprinkle sandwiches on that trip! I will miss you, Oma! Jennifer, my bestie, my sister ... you are in my thoughts daily. I love you!
