“ Joe was my Barber. He was an "old corps" barber! Upon entering his shop, up until your time came to sit on his old barber's chair, lots of information was shared among all his loyal customers. I never heard a discouraging word from Joe...and he would set the "tone" in the shop. He would always share stories about his padrinos, Pete and Elija, Michael and his family, or any persons from our small town of Belen. His kind words put persons at ease. Whether you were on the chair or waiting your turn, lots of wisdom came from the mouth of Joe! Our love goes out to his family for we have lost one of the "Good Ones", a pilar for our town! alfred and theresa
