“ *Sharing a family memory...
The family dog, Sporty went missing and was found at the dog pound. On the way home, Joe and Sporty were in the back seat of the car. Didn't know who was crying the loudest Joe or Sporty.
May God Bless You Always,
Until we meet again.
Love Mom*

“ So sorry for the loss to our family. My most vivid memory of Joe was when he was about 6 years old. My then husband and I had stopped by to visit and Joe was playing marbles. He didn't want to play by himself so my husband said he would play with him. But my husband didn't have any marbles, so Joe sold him a marble for a quarter. My husband soon won all the marbles and Joe started crying. My husband said he would give him back all the marbles but he wanted his quarter back. Joe cried even harder, he wanted the marbles and the quarter! My husband relented. Six year old Joe was quite the entrepreneur. Joy Poindexter, cousin

“ *Dear Martinez Family and Friends,
I was not privileged with the remarkable acquaintance of Mr. Martinez as you were , but it saddens me to read of your tremendous loss. Please accept my family's sincere condolences. It comforts many to know that our Creator promises us in the Bible, that we can take steps today to reunite with our dearest loved ones in the near future, right here on earth. May you have peace.*
