“ John, though it has been years since I have seen you, I remember you as always being very respectful & kind. There was nothing you would not do to help others when you were able to. You had a heart of gold. I pray for your family to find comfort through each other's hugs, good times, and many memories I am sure you made with them. May you rest in peace my friend join all other angels we have lost and fly for the freedom you deserve. Fly my friend fly...Berna
