“ *I remember Johnny really well. The Maldonados were a big part of my life when I was growing up in San Jose. Pama, my grandmother, was Eduardo's sister. Eduardo, was Johnny's father. My dad was Johnny's cousin. I spent lots of time with the Maldonados, then. Johnny was a really nice person. I will miss him very much. Mi wife and I send the Maldonados our sincere condolences. “ I am going to miss my brother dearly especially all of our phone calls and conversations. I am so grateful that I was able to spend some time and great memories over dinner right before his move to Texas. Johnny is now at peace and is resting with our dear Lord.. love and miss you brother.
