“ I knew Ernest a long time ago when I was a little kid. Shirley was my babysitter, and I met Ernest through her. They were always so nice to my family and I. I remember he had a truck that he was going to get repainted and asked my opinion, I told him purple was the best color so he should paint it that. And like a week later he came back with big purple stripe on his truck. I won't forget either he or Shirley, they were very cool people.

“ My heart felt condolences to Jose's Family. I met Jose when he was going with Shirley to her dialysis in Los Lunas. We rode the Socorro City Bus three times a week because I would go with my mother for her dialysis. I started working at TECH as a custodian and was used to seeing him everyday. He was a very hard worker and he was someone I respected very much, it's hard not seeing him everyday. He's resting now, until we meet again Jose. Thanks for the laughs when we went to dialysis and at work. I will never forget you and Shirley.
