“ GOD bless "Raymond". He was a good guy. He was an active member of St. Clemente Parish in Los Lunas. We used to greet each other at 10 am mass. I always respected Raymond since he knew about the Belen/Los Lunas sporting events of past years. You will never be forgotten.. May you soul rest in peace. Frank A. Gurule - former Valencia County Commissioner & Los Lunas Councilman. LLHS Class of 1963..

“ I would see this gentleman every Wednesday between 8:15 and 8:30 come into Our Lady of Belen Catholic Church and walk all the way around to the Pieta, Our Lady holding, Jesus, her Son. There he would pray a few minutes and then leave before St. Mary's School Mass started. He was always very courteous and he let me know he was a childhood friend of my husband's, John (Johnny) Baca. They played sports in the alley behind the Baca house on Main Street across from Jenny's Drugstore.
