so much, God Bless you dear cousin. Vaya Con Dios 💜

“ When Grandpa would come visit me he would build me the coolest tent in the living room and we would watch our favorite movie Selena and dance and sing and one time he got these giant boxes and made me a fort. He would play with me for hours and hours. I love you Grandpa.

“ Uncle Raymond - I heard you suffered for quite a while and now I hope you are talking away with Grandma, Grandpa, Mario, and my Dad. You all went through so much in life and now you are all at peace and watching over us.

And I am sure you and my Dad are planning lots of pranks to play on us up there.

*With heartfelt love and condolences

“ Raymond, thank you for being in my life! You will live on, not only in my heart, but through those beautiful children, whom I will share your memories, and create new ones with. They each have a part of you, in a unique and special way, but together they keep your spirit and personality alive. God bless you brother, as you share heaven with Mom and Daddy, Mario and Tommy. Peace.

“ My cousin Raymond Sanchez and I used to roam this magnificently rugged land together on our horses. He was a far better horseman than I was, he loved a well spirited horse. I wanted horses that just wouldn't throw me off. We raced our horses many times, he sometimes let me win. Big cousins do that for their little cousins. Raymond passed away yesterday.. Ride on cuz.

Love from your cousins, Gerald and Vicky Baca.

“ I was at a friends house and noticed a nice black cowboy hat I asked who's it was and they said I don't know you can have it. I liked it so much i put it on right away.A short time later Raymond showed up smiled at me and said "hey that hat looks perfect on you right on man." Sometime later I met Raecee and when she saw the hat at my house she immediately asked "why do you have my Daddys hat?" I realized not only was he a giving man but did not even desire recognition for it. He saw how much I liked the hat and let me have it with no hesitation. Who would have thought 4 years later I would be your son in law. You will be missed greatly.

“ You taught me to love unconditionally. You opened my eyes to the Lord and you were the greatest grandpa you would play the broom guitar and make Ceaira laugh and laugh. You loved when I called you Dada and you would bike miles and miles just to help out your Raecela. I love you Daddy. Your Legacy will live on through your children and your beautiful grandbabies
