“ As Joe and Kay's neighbors, we are so very sorry to hear of Joe's passing. He was such a wonderful man and neighbor, and gifted craftsman. We loved hearing his forge start up, it meant Joe was at work making one of a kind knives. Our heart felt condolences to Kay and the Cordova family.

“ Dad, from the times when you first agreed to be father to one more snotty nosed kid with an attitude to the time when you needed your hand held on your final journey, I have been blessed with all you had to give. You taught me to shoot an arrow, how to vacuum carpet right, how to drive, how to make eggs the way you like them, how to tie off a loaded pickup truck and a zillion other things. Your influence, guidance and examples will forever impact my life. I miss you.

“ Joe (and Kay) have been an important influence in my life. Not only as Joe being my mentor, but as to their friendship , wisdom and kindness. They have treated me like family, a kid who came out of nowhere. Joe showed me his skills, his humor, his faith and his maturity. I learned a lot of what it meant to be a man from him. Our paths have varied, but I will never forget his kindness. Earth's loss is Heavens gain and now he has heard: "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Lord". Thank-you Joe

“ Tata,
I am who I am today because of you. Thank you for never giving up on me. You taught me many valuable lessons. Some of them just took me a little longer to learn. Thanks for the love and support. And for the periodic well deserved thumps across the head. I need those.

I'm grateful for the time we got to spend together the last few years. I'm thankful that my boys got to know you. I appreciate you spending time with them. They will always remember drawing squiggles with you and helping them with their knives.

May your forge continue to burn, metal stay hot and your hammer strike true up there.

With all our love,
Carlos (Curly), Jamie, Shane, Brandon, and Gavin

Joseph was a wonderful, kind man. The Eloy Cordova Family loved him, and we always looked forward to his visits. He and his wife came to my mom's 90th Birthday, and that made her so happy. There was a warmth in him, polite and kind to all of us, and his hello and goodbye hugs is something that will remain in my memories of him. Dear Joseph, Rest in peace, and give my mom and Dad one of your hugs when you meet them heaven. You have earned God's praise. Cathy Cordova

“ Tata,

As a young man I did not recognize the impact you had on me while I was growing up. When I joined the Navy over 20 years ago, those lessons that you spent years instilling in me became more and more relevant. The example that you and grams have set for what a loving marriage should be, will continue to guide Sarra and I in our marriage.

I would not be the man I am today if you weren't for you. Having you pin my anchors the day I made Chief Petty Officer and placing on my cover when I was commissioned to Chief Warrant Officer, were some of the proudest days of my life. Those gestures were just that little something that I could publicly do to recognize the impact you have made on me.

I will love you and miss you always.

*Love,
Orlando*
