“ I am deeply saddened of the passing of my dear friend Joseph. I had the honor of working with Joe and his father Abe at CNMCF. I remember how proud Abe was of Joseph when he rose through the Ranks at the Prison. You couldn't help but share in his pride for his son. Joseph was an extraordinary individual in all he accomplished in his career and as a family man. And being a good man overall. I hadn't spoken with Joseph in over a year...and I regret that. Life is so special but can be so fragile. I remember Joe telling me his Dad was very ill and how concerned he was for him. He told me to please pray for him. I will forever miss both Joseph and Abe. They were both my Brothers in Arms whether working as Correctional Officers or the Military.
They are both together now...
God Bless the Extended Family of Abe and Joseph...
