“ *Estoy contristada con la pérdida de su ser querido, no hay duda que la muerte es muy dolorosa, por tal razón quería compartir con usted algunas palabras de consolación que le ayudaran en estos momentos difíciles, tal como me ayudaron a mí. Estas palabras se encuentran en la Biblia, si tiene Biblia le invito a que lea, Juan 5:28,29, Hechos 24:15, Revelación 21:3, 4, ahí notara que dichos textos hablan de la bella esperanza de la resurrección, solo podemos imaginar la alegría de volver abrazar a nuestro ser querido que ha fallecido. ¡Qué maravilla!
Con dicho pensamiento en mente, le invito a que visite el siguiente enlace: <http://www.JW.org/es/publicaciones/libros/tratado-muertos-vo-lver-a-vivir/> Ahí encontrara un artículo que habla más al respecto.*

“ Auntie, thank you for all the "I love you more" comments you would make when ever I would tell you I loved you. You always made me feel so special. I am so thankful to have been holding you on your last breath. Wish I could of spent more time with you when you were alive, but I thank God for the time we did spend. You were always so strong through everything and did it with pride. Nothing would hold you down. Your daughters love you and will miss you dearly!! We all will miss you and will never forget your great personality and always making us laugh. I am sure you were welcomed with open arms from our Lord, uncle, cousin Jr. , my Dad and many others. I am glad you are in peace now and you have no pain. I love you and will think of you always!

I am so sorry cousins for your loss. May God keep you strong and healty now and always.

I love you all, ELoisa

“ My sweet Grandma Sanchez, there are no words to describe the pain you feel when you lose a loved one. You were always so special to me and I loved you dearly, always, across the many, many miles. I will always cherish my childhood memories of you and Grandpa, and all my aunt's, uncles and cousins. I am glad that you are no longer in pain, no longer suffering and most of all, so, so very happy that I was able to see you one last time this past summer. Please give my Grandpa a big kiss and hug from me and please never forget how much I love you! xoxoxoxoxo <3 <3 <3

“ No one could ever replace my mother, but I love you just as much as my own mother and was so blessed to have the most beautiful, inside and out step-mother in the world in my life. I will miss our weekly phone calls, but will talk to you in spirit everyday. I'm lost without you. I know you are at peace with my Dad and Brother by your side. God bless you.
