“ Cindy,
Arturo and I accompany you and your family
in your grief.
I grew up with Judy and all our cousins in what was once my Grandma’s property in Belen, and I have so many fond memories of our childhood. Life was easier back then, slower, simpler, less complicated.
As an adult, Judy reached out to some of my underprivileged elementary students with gifts, a gesture so unexpected and so appreciated, that I will forever be grateful.
May she rest with our Lord now, and may He grant you consolation.
