“ I met Julie while she was employed with State Farm Insurance Co. (Jerry Jaramillo Agency.) Although very shy, she was pleasant, welcoming and knowledgeable in her profession.. I was also fortunate to dine with her a few times and knew she married, gave birth to a daughter, widowed at a young age, but lost track of her when our mutual friend, Shauna Ellison passed away. I often wondered what became of her and I am saddened to learn of my curiosity through this web site.

Mr and Mrs Garcia, you raised a very sweet, kind, loving daughter. May your faith carry you through this difficult time.

Rest in Peace Julie.

“ Julie radiated at the graduation celebration last year. I'm sure she was so happy to be able to participate in her daughter's great event. Her attitude, whenever I saw her was always so bright. She left a lasting impression on me of how to journey through this thing we call life. The Lord give you comfort as you go through the grieving process.

“ I didn't know Julie long, but she made a huge impact in my life. She was one of the first friends I made when I moved to Belen. We had some great times and made some good memories. My heart breaks for the loss of someone so young.

“ Julie was one of the smartest beautiful girls I have ever known. She had so much love in her heart for Taylor. I am so blessed for the many times she would call me just to talk and would call me her friend because we all know how private she was. I am going to miss her but am so thankful she is no longer suffering. I know it's hard but it is also so hard to know what to say or do. God Bless you and your family in this time. I love all of you . Loretta Hanson 🙏❤️🌸
