“ I would like to send my sincere condolences to all of Katter's family. She was such a great person, always kind and smiling. It had been a really long time since I last saw her, but she was a true friend. May she rest in peace and I pray that God gives you strength during this sad time and comfort in knowing she is smiling as she watches over all of you, her loving family. Praying for all of you! †

Katter, you will be extremely missed. I will always remember all the weekends and vacations we use to take when we were kids. Walking to Dairy Queen or Granny's house and trips to Santa Clara. Charles, Anna, John and Annmarie, I am very sorry for your loss. I know I don't see everyone often since I moved to CA. but you guys are always in my heart.
