“ Our prayers go out to Keith’s family during this difficult time. Keith was one of our customers here at State Farm. He was not just a customer he was a good friend. During the passing of my parents Keith would come into the office and talk to me or call to check in on me. During our conversations he would talk so highly of both his son, Father Clement and his daughter Keri. He will me greatly missed but never forgotten. Thank you Keith for all your stories and beautiful Rosaries you gave Ed and I throughout the years. May you walk in paradise with our Dear Lord, your beautiful wife and your beloved son. God is good. All the time!

“ My heartfelt sympathies to Fr. Clement and his family, I remember the first time I met Keith Niggel, it was at the children’s mass he introduced himself as the father of the father but he said “just call me grandpa” so from that day on I called him grandpa Niggel.
