“ In Memory of my brother Kasey

While our worlds may have seemed miles and years apart, I always felt close to you. You inspired me to be as funny as I could be. You taught me to be sincere and forthright. I learned that people and things are not always what they seem.

Things I remember:

The pastor at the church who did not quite get the joke.

The motorcycle rides with me on the handlebars of your dirt bike when we were young, and the rides we took together on separate bikes when we were young men.

The time you spent showing how to shoot a BB Gun.

The cat you helped me pick out when we were kids.

The war you never liked, but served in.

You were truly a special soul. I hope you find as much peace and love where you have gone. You were always loved, and will be missed dearly.

“ Rest in peace Kasey

There are so many memories, I can't pick just one .from my first day at work (where you would scare me just by looking at you) to the days that you would load your vacuum up with canisters put to blow and throw them at me .to the days that we work side by side you line 10 and me line 11. For many years we worked together. Not a boring day with you around

I hope you took the scenic route to heaven, and when you get there look down at us and smile cuz you made it there and we are still here.

“ Rest in peace dear friend and fellow employee. The years we shared together at work were something I will always remember. Have one for me up there.
