“ I would like to add to Larry's obituary. I don't know who wrote it, but you did not know him as well as you thought you did. I am his sister, the second oldest of 6 children, Larry being the oldest. Born Lawrence Marshall, he was named after both our grandfathers. Larry was also preceded in death by our mother, Barbara. He is also survived by his children: Sherry, Lawrence, Jr., Michele, and Barbara Deniese; his brothers and sisters: Beverly, Steve, Carol, Bill, and Jeff; and father Roland.

Larry was musically talented. He played the trumpet. He was in the Dance Band in high school. Only the best in the music classes were chosen to be in the Dance Band. When he would practice, all the children in the neighborhood would sit under his bedroom window to listen. He could play the piano by ear. Larry loved music. He could tell you all the music of the 1950s and 1960s: the name of the song, who recorded it, what date it was recorded and the recording label.

This is just one of the many wonderful memories we have of Larry. We will always remember and love Larry.

You may have had Larry in his closing years, but he was ours first.

He was my dad I loved him with all my heart I never left his side and all he ever said about his other girls was that they hated him and I had no way to contact anyone else and by the way if you knew so well where were you when he got sick non of you were around nor did he want you there either

And by the way I wrote it the way he wanted it to say so if you were not in the obituary than he did not want you in it

“ To our big brother from Beverly, Steve, Carol, Bill and Jeff. We will never forget you. You can be sure that if anyone say's otherwise, they are ignorant of the times we shared together growning up, and becoming teens and adults.. You were alway's quick to smile and to share a laugh, and, yes, there were also times when you could also be quick to lose your temper, but those as we remember were few and far between. We remember doing things like throwing the football around, or shooting hoops and how once you got mad and threw the ball over the house and it bounced off the next door neighbors house and came right back through our bedroom window. How scared we were that dad would find out. But you and Steve quickly repaired the window and no one was any worse for it. And I, Bill, remember when you came home from the Navy. You came walking down the street. Mom asked me if I recognized who you were. I didn't. But that was no problem. You quickly put any questions of that to rest, just being you. Or how you would sometimes come up to the house at lunch time when I was in high school and you and I would share a box of macaroni and cheese together. I drove to Amarillo often to visit you after I graduated school. I remember those times well, and will never forget them.

Regrets? We all have some. But there can never be any regrets having you as our big brother. We all love you and will miss you. You will always have a place of honor in our family tree.

*With all our love and tears from your brothers and sisters.
Steve, Beverly, Carol, Bill and Jeff*

“ *Dear Johnson Family and Friends,
I wasn't privileged with the remarkable acquaintance of Mr. Johnson as you were, but it saddens me to read of your loss. Please accept my family's sincere condolences. Many are comforted in knowing that our Creator assures us in the Bible that soon death and mourning will be no more. (Revelation 4:11, 21:4) May you have peace.*
