“ Larry was a teacher at Lamar High School when I started teaching. He helped me enormously. He was an amazing person. I still have a print he gave me on my wall in New Orleans.

“ He was the art teacher at Zuni High School where I was a first year special Ed teacher in 1973-74. He valued the student's art ability and held an art show of their work. I have some paintings and drawings from there. I remember him fondly.
