“ Coletta, Rachel and Veronica,
Lee was a truly an amazing man, for who I had great respect. Whether it was riding in the boat at the Butte or walking around the farm at home he always had a story to tell and a lesson to share. I still to this day have a set of his “lucky” polished tiger stones that he gave me from his pocket many years ago. I will forever cherish those moments and I pray the comfort of our Lord be with you during this most difficult time.
With Love & Sympathy, Rod Storey
