

Lesmen Chavez

August 15, 1929 - February 7, 2021

1929-2021

Lesmen Chavez, age 92, a resident of Tome, NM, passed away on Sunday, February 7, 2021, surrounded by his loving family. He was a member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Tome, NM. Lesmen was a well-known area farmer, growing crops of alfalfa and corn. He loved to dance and never missed a church fiesta to dance under the carpa.

Lesmen is preceded in death by his wife, Helen Chavez in 2005; his loving friend, Crisanta Garcia in 2017; parents, Manuel and Beatriz Maldonado Chavez; sister, Celia Moya. He is survived by his 13 loving children and many loving grandchildren, great-grandchildren and his loving siblings, nieces and nephews.

Services will take place on Thursday, February 11, 2021, at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Tome, NM, with a Public Viewing at 10:00 AM, a Rosary to be recited at 10:30 AM, Funeral Mass at 11:00 AM and Interment to follow at Tome Catholic Cemetery. Pallbearers will be his grandchildren, Nathan, Dominic, Eugene, Adrian, Jake and Michael. “My dad was a beautiful and honest person. He was happy being around his kids. He loved dancing, and enjoyed hanging out with his brother Eloy. He was hard working, dependable, and reliable. I learned from example. I will treasure my memories of my Dad. You will truly be missed.
