“ Papa,
Growing up I've always loved our family trips to Santuario and Nambe falls for Easter. My most cherished memories are of those times when the whole family was together, without a worry in the world, enjoying life to its fullest.
I'll also never forget the time when I was in the hospital after a surgery when I was very young. I had a very painful cough that would hurt my entire body unless someone held my chest down. The only person to give me relief was you. In that same visit, you gifted me a green teddy bear. That bear became very dear to me. I still have it more than 20 years later and I've handed it down to my Son. I will teach him to keep your memory alive.

"Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed and very dear."

We love you Papa
