“ My classmate Freddie, I just learned of your beloved Mothers passing today, July 3. I am at a loss for words for your grief. She was always very kind to me and all my family. We always had that one thing in common, Anthony and my brother Gil. Your loss is heavens gain and I am so sure she was very happy to reunite with her precious son. Still she was so young yet, too soon. I remember her very fondly and will continue to keep you in my thoughts, To God's newest angel, Love, Patricia Chavez Wagy

“ I would like to thank all who were involved in helping the Peralta family get through these times of grief of the loss of our beautiful mom Lucy! I would especially like to thank my brother Johnny and his wife Susan for setting aside part of their lives to make time in caring and loving our ill and aging parents! It really takes someone special for all the things you have done for them and for me! You guys have really changed my life for the better and I really appreciate every thing you have done. You guys have really bonded the Peralta family back to share precious memories forever! May God bless you guys and reward you in heaven forever! Thanks again your brother Freddie!

Lucy's Smile

*I loved how Lucy made my mother laugh, and then Mom would say something in Spanish and both laughed, watching their men as they worked, preparing the meat, the smell of cedar and roasting chile in the cold dawn air, Lucy handing me a tortilla wrapped around a warm roasted pork steak, in a bed of red chile, and when I tasted it, my tongue laughed, and Lucy smiled, telling my mom another juicy morsel, probably about me and my brothers and sister, on the school bus when Lucy drove us to school, hearing my mom laugh, warming my heart,
like the sun rising over the Manzanos, and as we ran to play football in the dew and alfalfa, I could hear my mother still laughing, once again, with Lucy.*

“ Lucy has been a friend of my family for over 60yrs, she was loved by my grandparents as one of their own, she was considered a sister by all, we considered her like an aunt. She had a heart bigger than the universe and a smile that outshined the sun. My heart is saddened to hear about her passing, but she has and will always be in my heart. My condolences and sympathy to the entire family.
