“ *Granny Pooh,
Where to begin on how you are going to be missed! From the Halloween pictures with you, the birthday calls of you singing all of us Las Mananitas, to watching you dance at every party! Hearing you tell us so many stories about you and Grandpa Joe, to the stories of our parents causing chaos. But nothing like the simple meals that we had at your house even tho it was a bologna sandwich and chips it always tasted better at your house, to the delicious enchiladas and macaroni with tomato sauce! I could go on and on but there would not be enough space for the memories I have with you! Until we meet again Granny Pooh keep dancing the streets of gold, and watch over each and every one of us!!*

I LOVE you bunches!! 💜💜💜

“ Grandma,
We are so blessed that Abrianna, Sofia, and Orlando were able to meet you and feel the Love you had for your family. You left behind so many memories that we will cherish forever. A Halloween will never go by without thinking of you. The kids always try to guess what you were going to be dressed as that year and you had so much fun doing it! We will miss you at every family party when you're not the first one on the dance floor! You were also a fashionista at its finest from your clothes, shoes and boy did you accessorize!! We are going to miss you and that big beautiful smile you always had. You taught your family to have faith in God and he will get us through this difficult time. Rest in peace grandma, we love And we will miss you so much!

“ I don't know where to start this. But I am going to start with my favorite memory with you. And that's every Halloween when you would dress as a witch. And I know for sure that I am going to miss going to your house and seeing you in that costume. I know how much you loved the rosary so every time I do one I am going to be reminded of you. Thank you for everything you did for this big and amazing family that you made, we will always appreciate it. I will be praying for you that you are happy in heaven right now. Tell my other great grandma hi and I miss her. I am going to miss you a lot but I will try to stay strong for you. Thank you for being an amazing great grandma to me and everyone else. I love you so so much. 💕💕

“ We send our heartfelt condolences to all the loved ones of Lucy B. Sanchez as well as all those who loved her. We will continue to pray for the repose of Lucy's soul and our Blessed Mother's comfort, our Lord Jesus Christ's strength and all the graces each of you needs in your time of mourning. I didn't know Lucy personally, however I can only imagine all the graces she has received from praying the Rosary up to 4 times daily. Amazing Grace.
